Oracle Capital Group, the global independent multi-family office and wealth consultancy, has announced that Martin Graham, Chairman of the Company, has bought out the Group's majority stake.

Mr. Graham, the former Director of Markets and Chairman of AIM at the London Stock Exchange PLC, takes full control of the Group and targets its strategic transformation with a focus on markets in South-East Asia and the Middle East.

Before joining Oracle Capital Group as Chairman in 2013, Mr. Graham enjoyed a distinguished career in the financial services industry. He achieved significant success in creating transformational growth strategies through leading teams with deep client focus. In addition to Oracle Capital Group, Mr. Graham has been appointed to a number of Boards, including Otkritie Capital International, where he chairs the Board Risk Committee; the Moscow Stock Exchange; and Piton Capital.

Founded in 2002, Oracle Capital Group provides comprehensive, tailored and confidential services for high-net-worth individuals and their families, including investment advisory (through their offices in Switzerland and the Bahamas), wealth structuring and asset protection, asset financing and insurance, legal and immigration support, accountancy and tax services, property development, and concierge services.

Oracle Capital Group has seven offices (London, Luxembourg, Geneva, Nassau, Moscow, Almaty and Limassol) and employs over 100 staff worldwide. In 2015 Oracle Capital Group was awarded the title of Family Office of the Year at the City of London Wealth Management Awards, and was rated the third best Family Office by Forbes Russia.

Martin Graham, Chairman of Oracle Capital Group, said: "This management buyout is an opportunity to build upon Oracle Capital Group's current strong position and to expand further strategically and geographically. We have a great team of extremely experienced professionals which gives us enormous potential to grow and to develop our business. We will utilise the experience the Company has gained since its inception and will also focus on creating and delivering innovative approaches for the benefit of our clients."
